The quality of our teaching and exceptional facilities are just two of the many reasons we're consistently ranked in the top 100 universities in the world.

You'll also benefit from the extra choices that come with studying at Australia's largest university. We have more courses, more study options, more research projects, and more international exchanges, giving you a broader education that will set you apart from your peers. Monash University is truly international and you are too. With students from over 170 countries, and a presence in Australia, Italy, Malaysia, India, South Africa and China, you'll benefit from a truly global education.

One of the popular options is a Monash double degree course which allows you to study towards two degrees at the same time to save time and money. You have a large options to choose among our extensive range of double undergraduate degrees offering:

- Bachelor of Arts and Bachelor of Business
- Bachelor of Education and Bachelor of Science
- Bachelor of Engineering and Bachelor of Biomedical Science
- Bachelor of Information Technology and Bachelor of Commerce
- Bachelor of Design and Bachelor of Media Communication

Some double degree courses incorporate both an undergraduate and graduate element. After five years you'll graduate with both a bachelors and a graduate masters degree. For example,

- Bachelor of Architectural Design and Master of Architecture
- Bachelor of Medical Science and Doctor of Medicine
- Bachelor of Pharmacy (Honours) and Master of Pharmacy.

Or a bachelor degree and a master degree within 4 years as in Bachelor of Arts and Master of Arts.

or what and how Monash University journalism student Peter Bateman who won the Melbourne Press Club's 2018 Student Journalist of the Year award has contributed to change the way we work thru his investigation report 'Walking the Poverty Line'.

Mr Bateman, a journalism and international relations Masters' student, was recognised for his brilliant coverage of the under-payment of pamphlet deliverers by Salmat, Walking the Poverty Line, published in The Age.

“His report led to a Fair Work Ombudsman investigation, numerous people sharing their stories and a share price plunge for the pamphlet distributor,” the judges said.

Head of Journalism Associate Professor Fay Anderson said four Monash journalism students were worthy finalists for the Melbourne Press Club Student of the Year award.
